INSTRUMENTATION SPECIALIST POSITION - The Department of Geology at Baylor University invites applications for a staff position managing the new stable isotope mass spectrometry laboratory at Baylor University, beginning as early as January 2010. A Ph.D. in Geology or Geochemistry is required at the time of appointment. The Department seeks an individual with a strong background in applications of stable isotope mass spectrometry to geological systems, who will manage a new laboratory containing a Thermo-Electron Delta V Advantage isotope ratio mass spectrometer with the following peripherals: Gas Bench II, combustion EA, TCEA, and a dual inlet. The instrumentation specialist is expected to support ongoing research programs that include geology, biology and environmental sciences. The position carries appointment as 90% staff and 10% research scientist, and we especially encourage collaboration with Geology faculty and students currently engaged in research focusing on terrestrial paleoclimatology. The successful candidate should also be capable of managing use of the instrument by faculty and students, be able to instruct new users, and conduct routine maintenance and repairs, assisted by a Baylor Sciences Building instrumentation Specialist. Baylor University also supports an annual service contract for the instrument.

Send letter of application, including statement of research interests, curriculum vitae, transcripts, and the names and contact information for three references to: Dr. Stephen I. Dworkin, Instrumentation Specialist Search Committee Chair, Department of Geology, Baylor University, One Bear Place #97354, Waco, TX 76798-7354 (Tel: 254-710-2361; Steve\_Dworkin@baylor.edu). The review of applications will begin October 1, 2009 and applications will be accepted until the position is filled. To ensure full consideration, application must be completed by December 1, 2009. Baylor is a Baptist university affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas. As an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer, Baylor encourages minorities, women, veterans and persons with disabilities to apply.
