Department of Earth Sciences

Instructor (Geophysics) – Term Position

Applications Closing Date: Applications will be considered until the position has been filled.

Start Date: September 1, 2018 (flexible)

The Department of Earth Sciences at Carleton University invites applications from qualified candidates for a 2-year appointment in geophysics at the rank of Instructor. The candidate will be expected to teach courses, beginning September 1, 2018, in geophysics, geodynamics at the second, third and fourth year levels, and to co-supervise undergraduate Honours student research projects and independent studies.

The position requires a Ph.D., with evidence of research in a field related to Geophysics, and evidence or demonstrated potential for excellence in teaching. Preference will be given to candidates who have expertise in Applied Geophysics and Environmental Geophysics.

Please send application by email to the attention of: Dr. Dariush Motazedian, Chair, Department of Earth Sciences, Carleton University, 1125 Colonel By Drive, Ottawa, Ontario, K1S 5B6 c/o Mrs. Sheila Thayer (SheilaThayer@Cunet.carleton.ca). The competition is closed on April 30th, 2018, or until the position is filled. Applications must be sent electronically in one single PDF file, which includes a curriculum vitae, a cover letter, a teaching dossier with a statement of teaching philosophy, and the names and addresses (including e-mail addresses) of three referees. Please indicate in your application if you are a Canadian citizen or permanent resident of Canada.

Carleton University is committed to fostering diversity within its community as a source of excellence, cultural enrichment, and social strength. We welcome those who would contribute to the further diversification of our university including, but not limited to: women; visible minorities; First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples; persons with disabilities; and persons of any sexual orientation, gender identity and/or expression. Carleton understands that career paths vary. Legitimate career interruptions will in no way prejudice the assessment process and their impact will be taken into careful consideration. Applicants selected for an interview are asked to contact the Chair as soon as possible to discuss any accommodation requirements. Arrangements will be made in a timely manner.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. All positions are subject to budgetary approval.
