Large Igneous Provinces: Versatile Drivers of Global Change

Guest Editors: Frances M. Deegan, Sara Callegaro, Henrik H. Svensen, and Joshua H.F.L. Davies

Driving Global Change One LIP at a Time
Frances M. Deegan, Sara Callegaro, Joshua H.F.L. Davies, and Henrik H. Svensen

How Large Igneous Provinces Have Killed Most Life on Earth—Numerous Times
Stephen E. Grasy and David P.G. Bond

Large Igneous Provinces and the Release of Thermogenic Volatiles from Sedimentary Basins
Henrik H. Svensen, Morgan T. Jones, and Tamsin A. Mather

Impacts of Large-scale Magmatism on Land Plant Ecosystems
Jennifer M. Galloway and Sofie Lindström

The Franklin Large Igneous Province and Snowball Earth Initiation
Francis A. Macdonald and Nicholas L. Swanson-Hysell

High-Precision Geochronology of LIP Intrusions: Records of Magma–Sediment Interaction
Sean P. Gaynor, Joshua H.F.L. Davies, and Urs Schaltegger

Elements is published jointly by the Mineralogical Society of America, Mineralogical Society of the UK and Ireland, Mineralogical Association of Canada, Geochemical Society, The Clay Minerals Society, European Association of GeoChemistry, International Association of GeoChemistry, Société Française de Minéralogie et de Cristallographie, Association of Applied Geochemists, Deutsche Mineralogische Gesellschaft, Società Italiana di Mineralogia e Petrologia, International Association of Geoanalysts, Polskie Towarzystwo Mineralogiczne (Mineralogical Society of Poland), Sociedad Española de Mineralogía, Swiss Geological Society, Meteoritical Society, Japan Association of Mineralogical Sciences, and International Association on the Genesis of Ore Deposits. The magazine is provided as a benefit to members of these societies.

Elements is published six times a year. Individuals are encouraged to join any one of the participating societies to receive Elements. Institutional subscribers to either of the following journals—American Mineralogist and The Canadian Mineralogist—also receive one copy of Elements as part of their subscription. Institutional subscriptions are available for US$185 (US$200 non-US addresses) per year in 2023. Contact the Executive Editor (editor@elementsmagazine.org) for information.
